Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God.

Power, riches, wisdom, and strength, and honor, blessing, and glory are His.

This is the feast of victory for our God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation:

Blessing, honor, glory, and might be to God and the Lamb forever.

Amen.

This is the feast of victory for our God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

For the Lamb who was slain has begun His reign. Alleluia.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

Almighty God the Father, through Your only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, You have overcome death and opened the gate of everlasting life to us. C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Job 19:23–27

<sup>23</sup>“Oh that my words were written!

Oh that they were inscribed in a book!

<sup>24</sup>Oh that with an iron pen and lead

they were engraved in the rock forever!
<sup>25</sup>For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and at the last he will stand upon the earth.
<sup>26</sup>And after my skin has been thus destroyed,
yet in my flesh I shall see God, <sup>27</sup>whom I shall see for myself,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!”

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Gradual: “Now the Green Blade Riseth”

Setting by Kenneth T. Kosche

Now the green blade riseth from the buried grain, Wheat that in dark earth many days has lain; Love lives again, that with the dead has been: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

In the grave they laid Him, Love whom men had slain, Thinking that never He would wake again, Laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

Forth He came at Easter, like the risen grain, He that for three days in the grave had lain, Quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain, Thy touch can call us back to life again, Fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been: Love is come again like wheat that springeth green.

Epistle

1 Corinthians 15:51–57

<sup>51</sup>Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, <sup>52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. <sup>53</sup>For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. <sup>54</sup>When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.”

<sup>55</sup>“O death, where is your victory?”

O death, where is your sting?”

<sup>56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup>But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

- A This is the Word of the Lord.
- C Thanks be to God.

Verse of the Day

Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him.

Holy Gospel

Mark 16:1–8

- P The Holy Gospel according to St. Mark, the sixteenth chapter.
- C Glory to You, O Lord.

<sup>1</sup>When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. <sup>2</sup>And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. <sup>3</sup>And they were saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?” <sup>4</sup>And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. <sup>5</sup>And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. <sup>6</sup>And he said to them, “Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. <sup>7</sup>But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.” <sup>8</sup>And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

- P This is the Gospel of the Lord.
- C Praise to You, O Christ.

Nicene Creed

☩ I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven
and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead,
whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified,
who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead
and the life ✠ of the world to come. Amen.

The Words of Our Lord

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: "Take, eat; this is My ✠ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me."

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: "Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ✠ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

News and Notes

Christ Academy This Wednesday (5:45 p.m.): A Christian Death and Burial

(Rev. Jeffrey Kuddes, Faith Lutheran, Richmond, MO) - It's coming, you know. All flesh born will die. One response is a "celebration of life." But that can go all kinds of wrong. The Christian at death celebrates Christ as so beautifully seen, heard, spoken, and sung in its rites of dying, death, and burial. Come and hear of Jesus for you and for your life forever!

Eighth Grade Confirmation parents should plan to meet with Pastor Sherrill on Wednesday, April 3 at 6:45 p.m. Contact Pastor Sherrill with any questions.

Kantor's Notes: After the more reserved character of Lent and Holy Week, the Church breaks out into jubilant songs of praise at Easter! While we may be temporarily without a pipe organ this Easter, this reality does not prevent us from singing and making music joyously and boldly. Today, we are blessed with the addition of trumpet and baritone to help lead our congregational singing. The trumpet descants were composed by John Timm. The choral Alleluia was composed by Pastor Frank. Two of the piano arrangements are from a series of volumes being published by Concordia Publishing House which includes settings for every tune in our hymnal. This new music is an example of how the Church is continually adding to its present repertoire while learning from, treasuring, and incorporating our rich heritage of the past. Are you a young musician? Perhaps you now or in the future could add your own compositions to the Church's song! As each of us uses the unique gifts God has given us, we build and encourage one another as one body in the hope of the Gospel. As we participate together in this Sunday's music, may we be emboldened to gladly declare: "Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!"
